

Powder Coating System - SpectraCoat ES-02

|              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|--------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Name         | SpectraCoat ES-02 Power Coating System                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Training     | Training Required                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Manufacturer | https://powderbuythepound.com/                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Description  | SpectraCoat ES02 Pro is a powder coating system with 0–100 KV adjustable output and a patented VectorWave board that eliminates Faraday Cage issues and enables multi-coat applications for superior coverage. The specific thread size for the gun jar is 89/400. |

Related Pages

Manual: spectracoat\_es01.pdf