

Roller, Bead

Very similar to a Baileigh BR-18M-18, but appears to be slightly different.

Dies include:

- Shearing dies: 1 set
- Bead dies: 1/4, 3/8, 1/2
- Step dies: 1/16, 1/4 (1/8 is missing one die)
- Wire dies: 1 set

|               |                                                                                                                                     |
|---------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Name          | Bead Roller                                                                                                                         |
| Date Acquired |                                                                                                                                     |
| Training      | Training Not Required                                                                                                               |
| Manufacturer  |                                                                                                                                     |
| Description   | Allows you to create consistent and precise bead patterns on sheet metal.Capacity: 18 gauge mild steelThroat Depth: 18" |
| Volunteers    |                                                                                                                                     |

Related Pages