

Lathes

The image's data is missing.

The machine shop has several lathes ranging from full size manual lathes (Clausing-Colchester and SHARK 16x40 w/DRO,) a small CNC lathe (Tormach 8L,) and Sherline Micro lathes, both manual and CNC.

All machine shop lathes require training or checkout to authorize use.

|               |                                                                                         |
|---------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Name          | Lathes                                                                                  |
| Date Acquired |                                                                                         |
| Training      | Training Required                                                                       |
| Manufacturer  |                                                                                         |
| Description   | The several Lathes in the Machine Shop - all require training or checkout prior to use. |
| Volunteers    |                                                                                         |

Related Pages

- Clausing-Colchester Manual Lathe
- SHARK 16x 40 Lathe with DRO
- Sherline Micro Lathes
- Tormach 8L CNC Lathe
- Useful References